Personal qualities

When you join the Kings' family you will become part of a strategically connected group of schools, one of which is the only school in Dubai to be rated outstanding 10 years running. Working in Dubai is a fast-paced and rewarding experience, however, it is a demanding and rigorous working environment which requires committed and motivated professionals. As such we seek teachers who understand that their role extends far beyond the classroom and who is able to work collaboratively as part of a team.

Given the multicultural nature of Dubai and Kings' Al Barsha all teachers are expected to demonstrate tolerance, respect and to be an ambassador for Kings' at all times, in school and the United Arab Emirates.

Expectations of a Kings' Teacher

As part of our drive for excellence Kings' has committed to the John Hattie Visible Learning programme and we are the only school in the Middle East working directly with the Visible Learning group. This focuses on how to best enhance student achievement, linking closely to our mission statement of "The best by every child." All teachers receive excellent and highly desirable professional development which informs our approach and how we evaluate our impact as a professional body. Our professional impact is assessed against the criteria below.
